4a (Code: ) (Expenses $ 4,117,011. including grants of $ 60,000.) (Revenue $ ) Compassionate Education Systems (CES Formerly known as FosterEd): This program of National Center for Youth Law ("NCYL") improves the social, emotional, relational, and educational outcomes for youth in foster care, the juvenile justice system, and youth experiencing homelessness. The CES team collaborates with state and local agencies through demonstration sites to ensure that the voices of young people are central to the decision-making process on issues that impact their lives, building healing-centered school and agency cultures, and ensuring effective coordination amongst schools, community and public agencies. This team currently operates as a statewide program in Arizona focused on foster youth and demonstration sites in four California counties. Sites in Los Angeles and Contra Costa counties

4b (Code: ) (Expenses $ 3,546,671. including grants of $ 711,768.) (Revenue $ ) Health & Information: NCYL leads the Reproductive Health Equity Project for Foster Youth, a collective impact initiative that partners with youth with lived experiences in the foster care system and multiple public and private agencies to dismantle system-level barriers that impede youth in foster care from accessing sexual and reproductive health care and education. Our Collaborative Responses to Commercial Sexual Exploitation Initiative brings together public agencies and community partners to change perceptions, build trust, develop and implement policy, and transform systems and community responses to commercial sexual exploitation to ensure survivors are supported to heal and thrive. Finally, our Health team works to ensure that youth across the country can access confidential healthcare, including mental 4c (Code: ) (Expenses $ 2,853,172. including grants of $ 96,241.) (Revenue $ 266,345.) Juvenile Justice: NCYL's youth justice and justice & equity campaigns are transforming the youth justice system and working to end the use of juvenile fines and fees in states across the country. In these areas, NCYL works on collective impact campaigns that leverage coalition building, communication strategies, training and technical assistance, and the direct engagement of youth and families to create changes based on principles of healthy youth development to juvenile justice system policies and practices.

Part X, Line 2:

NCYL is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d.

Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by NCYL in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. NCYL's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

The Form 990 is reviewed by the Deputy Director of Operations, the Executive Director and members of the board prior to filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Board members are required to review the conflict of interest policy and sign the document declaring that they either have no conflicts or are disclosing any conflicts. Staff members are sent a copy of the updated personnel handbook annually (which includes the conflicts of interest policy) and are required to sign that they have received and agree to comply with the handbook. Any potential conflicts of interest are reviewed as they occur and resolved and documented in the board minutes.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

The salary of the Executive Director of NCYL is set by the Board of Directors. The Board determines the Director's salary on an annual basis and considers, among other factors, the salaries of executive directors at comparable non-profit organizations. When positions are hired or promoted, independent consultants provide a market analysis that includes comparative survey data to substantiate salaries. The salary of the Executive Director normally becomes effective on January 1st of each year.

Compensation for officers and key employees is determined pursuant to a written policy.
